ex officio Visitors of all Jails within their respective Jurisdictions. under Rule 15 the Sessions Judges and Magistrates who are ex officio Visitors of Jails under Rule 14 are required to visit the Jail (if any) at their head quarters at least once in each quarter of the year, unless they are prevented by absence or other unavoidable Cause. The prisons file 25-19-1 put up below the Reg. Chief Court has reported that the Chief Judge of Mysore is constituted an ex officio Visitor of the Jails in the State under Rule 14, not with a view to his making periodical Visits to all of them, which for various reasons is out of the question but in order to empower him to exercise the powers of inspection ch Vested in Visitors whenever he thinks such an inspection necessary or expedient in public interests. This View has been accepted by Govt.

Lockups under Rules 18 and 19, the officers referred to by the I.G. of Prisons are ex officio Visitors but the number of Visits to be paid by them is not prescribed.
